TWO RACES FOR NOVICE JOCKEYS TOMORROW

Long Distance Event For The Australians

(BY LAST QUARTER)

The main interest at the Third Extra Race Meeting of the Hongkong Jockey Club tomorrow afternoon at Happy Valley will be the Brisbane Spring Handicap for Australian subscription ponies of any season.

It is a two-mile event and the first of its kind for this particular class of racers. Amongst the list of entries appears the names of some of the best and even with the distinct possibility of the top weights not accepting, there is sufficient class remaining to give promises of a thrilling race.

The Novice Jockeys are well catered for at this meeting; there being two races reserved for them: Canton Handicap, First and Second Sections. Here they will have the mount on "D" Class China ponies from the two mile post once round and in. Judging from the recent race when Wilber and West Lake had a grand tussle for honours, the two events tomorrow should again produce excellent finishes.

CANTON HANDICAP (FIRST SECTION)

The programme opens with a race for Novice Jockeys and on the stakes money should rest between Chatterbox, Fei Yink and This Time, with some hope as a real good outsider.

Chatterbox is an easy going pony and should suit any Novice rider. Fei Yink, I have been given to understand, will be under the guidance of Mr. Ho Hong Ping, who is undoubtedly one of our best "red letter" jockeys and the combination is sure to find plenty of well merited support.

This Time is as good as when he last placed, and if well served in the jockey department should finish very close. Wilber and West Lake are up against better opposition than at the last meeting and I therefore, cannot concede them more than an outside chance.

BRISBANE SPRING HANDICAP
Punters will undoubtedly make it a point to arrive in time for this two miles race, which is an innovation and consequently may be the means of an upset. I am strongly in favour of the light weights and being of the opinion that this year's Australians are superior to past importations my choice falls on Viceroy (L. B. Chao) and Sparrow (D. Black) as the likely ones to score. Both these ponies are in good condition though I have a slight preference for the first named. Trilphanti Day (H. M. Botelho) is my next choice as this brown is only carrying 135 lbs. and has proved to be a stayer. Lucky Lad will have his usual pilot, Mr. Nedda, and this combination needs no introduction, though the chestnut will need careful nursing. Of the heavy weights, I like Sapper best, although rumours are current that this pony may not go to the post.

Far View, I have been told, is a non-starter. Baffin Bay (Hearne), will be running under new colours and is worth considering as a fairly good outsider bet.

FATSHAN HANDICAP (FIRST SECTION)
With the "C" Class grins barred from this mile and a quarter event it looks as if the "Bay" ponies will be the ones to finish ahead, namely, Tampa Bay and Boilat Bay, with Galveston Bay as the next best. These three ponies are in at handy weights and appear to be fairly fit.

Rose Queen should not be entirely neglected as this bay mare is liable to come up any time and has been known to take on a bit of distance. National Pride and Just In Time are about the best amongst the remaining entries. The latter was on the heavy side at the last meeting and should run better tomorrow. Guinness Time has been promoted, and I do not expect this liver chestnut to score again. Oak Bay (163 lbs.) and Pinarthings (156 lbs.) are running out of their distances.

ROBERT HANDICAP
This is a mile race for "B" Class Australian ponies and though Murrumbidgee has been penalized 10 lbs. for a recent win, it was in such a comfortable manner that I believe this bay capable of once again doing the trick. Brutus is the one that may possibly beat the favourite as he is looking a picture of health and in tip top condition. A Roaring Time should be able to secure a place. As an outsider, Sydney Lad, is worth a small bet. This pony gave a grand display at the last meeting and the distance tomorrow should be more to his liking.

KONGMUN HANDICAP
Though Johnner and Gay Star are carrying top weight in this race, I doubt whether any of the others with the possible exception of Oonagh, will be able to beat them. Oonagh has a pull of 10 lbs. in handicap weights and should, therefore, be very close up. Distinctive Time gives me the impression of being only a sprinter and was very disappointing when she last started, so that it is quite possible the stable connections may rely on For All Time. This latter has been doing steady work of late and showing signs of possibilities. Hughes might match a place while Ronson should also do well, though I am inclined to think that this bay would do better, over a shorter distance. However, he appeals to me as the best of the other probable starters and

GAME BATTLE BY RICCI

Univ. Basketball Tournament

Last night, at the University Gymnasium, Ricci Hall gamely battled against Elliot Hall in the Inter-Hotel Basketball Tournament. Ricci eventually won 33-14, and are now virtual champions.

In the first half Ricci Hall put up such an offensive, that the Elliot players had to look to their laurels.

In the second half, Ricci players seemed excited, and their shooting became erratic.

Comparatively mediocre was the match between St. John's Hall and Morrison Hall, in which the latter led by 21-7 in the first half, to win by 34-21.

The line-ups of teams, and scores are as follows—
Elliot Hall:—H. C. Goh 8, Lee Chee Khoo 12, P. H. Lam 4, K. L. Hui 9, M. T. Lim 0. Total 33.
Ricci Hall:—Luk Mang Wai 2, Yo Peng Hong 4, G. Karpuchoff 4, J. B. Lim 2, Leslie Sung 2, Ku Mac Hsiang 0. Total 14.

St. John's Hall:—H. N. Chin 6, K. S. Chia 4, C. Y. Ip 8, H. N. Kwan 10, J. T. Yeoh 2, Rayson Huang 2. Total 32.
Morrison Hall:—Lee Shu Pang 8, P. Tam 6, Cheung Shui Yin 5, Lo Tak Cheung 0, Lee Ah Poon 2. Total 21.

UP-TO-DATE SCORES
Elliot v. Morrison, 65-25.
St. John's v. May, 26-30.
May v. Morrison, 52-40.
Elliot v. May, 40-21.
St. John's v. Morrison, 34-21.
Elliot v. Ricci, 33-14.

is a fairly safe outsider, particularly if the pony is well positioned throughout and not rushed on too early in the race. This is the first leg of the Daily Double.

ST. KILDA HANDICAP
There is really nothing outstanding in this mile race for "D" Class Australians and on past performances, Amber II is as good as any of the others. The real danger, I believe, is Sea Urchin. On training performances, Colorado Star will probably be in it at the finish and I recommend this chestnut to punters looking for bigger money. The rest are a mediocre lot and not impressive, except that Quick Despatch and Nancy Lee seem to have come on a little since the Annual Race Meeting in February.

FATSHAN HANDICAP (SECOND SECTION)

For the second leg of the Daily Double, I am inclined to favour Celtic Star, who appears to have regained old form and is in excellent condition at the moment. Advancing Time and Strathannock should fill the two minor positions and if Mr. Nedda is up, may cause an upset. Soldier of Britain ran quite well up to a certain stage, at the Second Extra Meeting, though the 11 miles tomorrow afternoon is definitely against this old warrior. Commencement Bay is another pony on the upward grade and though worthy of a bet, I do not think this grey is quite on top as yet.

BROKEN HILL HANDICAP
This six furlong race should be fought out between Flying Dutchman and Franklin as Many Thanks has top weight to shoulder and may therefore be beaten. Fair Chance got away well in his last outing but simply faded out in the straight, so he had best be left alone. Perola d'Oriente was left badly at the gate a fortnight ago but came up with a tremendous burst and very nearly won. I think this bay is the best outsider in this particular race. Springhurst and Australian Prince are fair propositions.

CANTON HANDICAP (SECOND SECTION)
The last race of the day is also confined to Novice Jockeys and Gold Coin seems to have the edge over the others. Golden Cow is a dangerous opponent and should be prominent. I am afraid Piet Hein (165 lbs.) and Good Morning (159 lbs.) will find the dead-weight well beyond their ability. Fortrush is the horse to follow if one needs some money to cover the afternoon's losses. Emergency Call and Dekko are likely place ponies. Final selections will appear in tomorrow morning's issue.

Rumjahns Through

COLONY TENNIS RESULTS

The Rumjahns cousins, who held the Colony Doubles title on no less than 12 occasions (they held it for 11 years in succession, from 1925 to 1935 and won it again in 1937 after having lost to the Tsui brothers in 1936), showed they are still a force in the local tennis world when they beat Pang Oi-lam and Leung Ping-chiu in straight sets on the Stand Court yesterday to qualify for the semi-finals in this year's Open Doubles championship.

The holders of the title, Tsui Wai-pui, Colony champion, and his brother Tsui Yan-pui, had on the previous day won their quarter-final match against I. M. Abdul-Razack and A. R. Kitchell, so it is quite on the cards that the Tsuis and Rumjahns will battle again in this year's final.

Turning to yesterday's game again, the Rumjahns won quite easily, 6-4, 6-4, although the Chinese pair showed flashes of brilliance.

The Rumjahns combined perfectly and were never extended, "H. D." in particular, putting over some very solid forehand drives and overhead work.

In the only other Open game T. A. Pearce and B. C. Fay beat T. C. Chan and Marsland Ma 6-4, 5-6 and 6-4.

5,000 SPECTATORS SEE CHILDREN'S SPORTS AT WANCHAI

Prizes Distributed By Lady MacGregor

More than 5,000 spectators were present at the Southern playground in Wanchai yesterday afternoon to witness the sixth annual sports sponsored by the Children's Playgrounds Association. Great interest was shown in the various events on the programme, each event being keenly contested. The highlight was a small ball game between two teams representing Hongkong and Kowloon, the game was won by the former side, the score being 6-3.

Hongkong also beat Kowloon in that those who had not been so the tug-of-war. Other events in the programme would do better next year. The events included flat races, potato race, year sack race, three-legged race and obstacle races.

EXTREMELY HAPPY
Replying, Sir Atholl said that he was extremely happy to be the successful competitors to be present. There were a lot of faces among the young people there which he was beginning to recognise quite well, and he was glad to see that they had grown bigger, healthier and stronger. He hoped they would continue to make full use of the playgrounds to make themselves fit, and said that he hoped to see them all again next year.

Mr. Lo Tung-fan, chairman, said they were happy to have their charming and beloved President and Lady MacGregor, at the sports as in former years. It was fortunate that they were favoured by fine weather. The meeting, he could say, was a great success; the events were contested keenly and in the best of spirit and manner. He congratulated the winners, and hoped Extremes in 15th century masculine hair styles are effected by Boris Karloff and Basil Rathbone for their respective roles in Universal's "Tower of London." Rathbone is cast as Richard III, a role that requires him to wear a red wig, while Karloff, as the executioner, "Barbed," has his head completely shaved. Karloff also has his ears taped back to throw his head out of proportion and accentuate the grimness of the character.

Swiss Press Comment

WHITE BOOK AND MOLOTOV'S SPEECH

LONDON, Apr. 3 (Reuter).—The Swiss press today divides editorial attention between the German White Book and M. Molotov's speech.

"This publication was clearly intended to counteract the profound impression created all over the world by the French Yellow Book and the English Blue Book," says "La Tribune."

ADDRESSED TO GERMANY

The Zurcher says: "M. Molotov's injunction of Russia's intention to pursue her own politics was clearly addressed to Germany. Berlin seems slightly disappointed with Russia who has wisely pocketed the winnings without having to stake all on the German card of victory or defeat. Moscow is eager to avoid giving the Allies any pretext for attack."

"Nevertheless," continues the paper, "the Kremlin apparently realises that Russia's protestations of neutrality may come too late and that it may be that a collision with the Allies is inevitable. How disastrous Russia considers such a war would be can be clearly seen in M. Molotov's speech."

MOOD OF EXPECTANCY

The Hungarian press betrays a mood of expectancy of an intensification of the British blockade. The Budapest "Magyarország" believes that Britain will attempt to enhance the control sufficiently to make the neutrals entirely dependent upon her pleasure even by entering the Black Sea.

The paper also stresses the significance of M. Molotov's vague reference to Rumania.

The "Magyarország" stresses London's mistrust of the Russian promises and M. Molotov's equivocal statements while quoting "Pravda" as repeating the statement that the Soviet is ready to strengthen connections with the West.

The "Magyar Nemzet" also stresses the significance of the report that Britain desires to extend the blockade to the Adriatic.

TWO CIVILIANS WOUNDED

LONDON, Apr. 3 (Reuter).—Two civilians and one serviceman were wounded by shell splinters during last night's German raid on Scapa Flow.

Otherwise no other reports of damage have been confirmed.

Third Term For Pres. Roosevelt?

MILWAUKEE, Apr. 3 (Reuter).—Candidates who have pledged themselves to re-elect President Roosevelt gained the majority of votes in the Wisconsin democratic presidential preference primary today.

The latest returns from 1,844 districts give 168,210 votes to the candidates pledged to President Roosevelt and 58,806 votes to Vice-President Mr. John Garner.

3 TO 1 FOR ROOSEVELT

NEW YORK, Apr. 3 (Reuter).—The Democratic Party of Wisconsin has voted 3 to 1 in support of President Roosevelt for his third term office.

The other candidates supported Mr. John Garner, the Vice-President.

In the Republican Primaries also held here Mr. Thomas Dewey, the District Attorney of New York, was given a 2 to 1 lead over Senator Vandenberg.

In the somewhat complicated system of American politics one State's primary does not produce any concrete result, but the present result is regarded generally in the United States as an indication, of President Roosevelt's prospects should he decide to stand for this third term of office.

WHAT THE U.S. ARMY COSTS

WASHINGTON, Apr. 3 (Reuter).—The Army appropriation of $788,000,000 has been recommended to the House of Representatives by the Appropriations Committee. This is $67,000,000 less than President Roosevelt recommended.

NEW CANADIAN GOVERNOR

LONDON, Apr. 3 (Reuter).—It is officially announced from Buckingham Palace that His Majesty the King has approved the appointment of the Earl of Athlone as Governor-General of Canada in succession to Lord Tweedsmuir, who died last February while still in office.

Personal A.D.C. to the King since 1936, Governor of Windsor Castle since 1931, Chancellor of London University since 1932, the Earl of Athlone was Governor-General of the Union of South Africa from 1923 to 1931. He is the husband of Princess Alice of Albany. He will be 66 on April 14.

Hitler Looks Into Future

HOSPITALS READY FOR HIS MEN!

AMSTERDAM, April 4 (Reuter).—A "mushroom" growth in the number of hospitals has sprung up lately all over Germany, particularly along the Rhine, giving rise to rumours among the civil population that Hitler is planning a gigantic and costly bid to smash through the Maginot Line.

In towns and villages, on ancient castles and modern luxury hotels, the roofs are being painted with huge red crosses on white backgrounds as a warning to Allied airmen.

Wherever possible the existing hospitals have been converted for military purpose and in many places schools, monasteries and private hotels, together with famous castles, have been pressed into use.

Luxury hotels at Marienbad, Karlsbad, Tepitz and other spas in former Czecho-Slovakia have also been equipped to receive thousands of wounded whenever necessary.

MUTUAL AID AGREEMENT

LONDON, Apr. 3 (Reuter).—In the House of Commons today, Mr. R. A. Butler, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, stated that conversations had recently taken place between English, French and Turkish military representatives regarding the military application of the treaty of mutual assistance.

Less Unemployment In Britain

LONDON, April 4 (Reuter).—The Ministry of Labour announces a substantial improvement in the unemployment figures. Between February 12 and March 11, the number of persons unemployed fell by 383,000 to 1,121,000.

Compared with March, 1939, this was a reduction of 605,000.

A large part of the increase in employment was due to an improvement in the weather conditions, but in addition there has been a general increase in industry activity from other causes.

SHANGHAI INVESTMENTS SHOW DEPRECIATION

"H.K. Fires" Chairman Reviews Year's Trade

"I think you will agree that the less said about the future the better, as it is quite impossible to anticipate the events at the present time," said the Hon. Mr. J. J. Paterson, chairman of directors, while presiding at the 71st annual general meeting of the Hongkong Fire Insurance Co., Ltd., yesterday.

"Insurance difficulties are in no wise lessened with ever increasing competition and vexatious legislation, while taxation in all areas is advancing by leaps and bounds. I dare say all company legislation is vexatious, but it is for our good and we are merely unappreciative. Still we carry on and so far have no reason to be dissatisfied with the results for the first three months of 1940."

The Hon. Mr. Paterson was supported by Mr. C. Bernard Brown, Mr. A. H. Compton, the Hon. Mr. M. K. Lo, Mr. T. E. Pearce, and Mr. J. H. Taggart (directors).

Shareholders were present: Messrs. H. W. Duley, D. V. Stephenson, D. Hong, M. H. Lo, S. H. Ross, P. Tester and A. Ritchie.

EMINENTLY SATISFACTORY

In moving the adoption of the report and accounts, the Hon. Mr. Paterson, said in part:—

The result of the Company's working for the year 1938 which we now present to you is eminently satisfactory. The Account having run off with a credit balance of $669,429.78, the fifth best we have had.

This is the more gratifying in view of the fact that Premium Income fell by just over $120,000, as compared with that received during the year 1937; this drop in revenue was due to the material curtailment of our Sterling operations and also to the greatly reduced showing of our takings at Shanghai and the Northern Agencies, when converted into Hongkong dollars at present day rates of exchange.

COMPARISON OF RATIOS

A comparison of ratios as between 1938 and 1937 reveals the following:— Losses 45.91 per cent as against 61.74 per cent Charges 40.15 per cent and 37.67 per cent leaving a balance of 13.94 per cent as against the extremely narrow one of 5.9 per cent for 1937. The rate for Sterling Exchange remaining at 1/27/8d, no change took place in this respect.

The balance at credit of 1939 Working Account—after twelve months—stands at $853,596.82, a decrease of $108,855.38 on that for 1938 at the same stage. This is due to a still further pruning of our Sterling transactions and the yet lower exchange at which both Premium Income and Interest, emanating from China sources, have been taken into our books.

The surplus to be dealt with is $669,429.78—the balance of 1938 Account—and we now recommend the payment of $11 per share, absorbing $440,000, the appropriation of $100,000 to Reinsurance Fund and that the balance of $129,429.78 be transferred to Investment and Exchange Fluctuation Account.

CHINESE SOCIETY WEDDING

MR. STANLEY SHEN
& MISS C. PEI

A fashionable Chinese society wedding took place yesterday when Miss Cecilia Pei, daughter of Mr. Tsu Yee-pei, Manager of the Bank of China, and Mrs. Pei, was married to Mr. Stanley Shen, son of Mr. Shen Yung, a prominent Tientsin merchant, and Mrs. Shen.

The marriage was solemnized at St. Joseph's Church, with the Rev. Fr. R. Brookes officiating.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was attended by the Misses Li, daughters of Mr. Li Tse-fong, as bridesmaids. After the church ceremony, a well-attended reception was held at the Hongkong Hotel, where the newly married couple received the congratulations of a large circle of friends.

THE TOAST

Proposing the toast of the bride and bridegroom, the Hon. Sir Robert Kotewall said: A few years ago, when we had not two wars to distract the mind, I was well in the running for the championship of Hongkong in speaking at weddings. Though I am now a little out of practice, my zest for this kind of job has not abated; for, true to a familiar saying, I love a lover. Certainly my pleasure in proposing (the principal toast today is very keen, for two reasons. One is that I have a tremendous liking for the bride, and the other is that I have no less a liking for the bride's father.

Mr. Tsuyee Pei needs no introduction to you. He is one of the ablest, best known and most highly respected bankers in China. Among his claims to fame are his services to the National Government of China in financial matters, and his loyalty to friends. I owe much to Mr. Pei. I am proud of his friendship, and value it.

Some twenty years ago, when I was aspiring to a banking career, Mr. Pei, who was then the busy manager of the Hongkong Branch of the Bank of China, gave up his Wednesday and Saturday afternoons for a whole month, in order to initiate me into the mysteries of foreign exchange. If this is not friendship of the most unselfish kind, I should like to know what is. Looking at Mr. Pei one would not think that, as far back as twenty years ago, he was already a manager of a big bank here. He is so young-looking and so handsome. Would anyone, not knowing him, believe that he is a father-in-law? I am sure that he owes his youthful looks to the solicitous care of Mrs. Pei whose charm is only equalled by her successful way of "mothering" her husband.

BRIDE AND GROOM

I must not go on talking about the bride's father, when I should be talking about the bride herself and her husband.

I have known the bride since she was a girl of five or six. In those days she often came to my house with her brothers and sisters to play with my children; and I sometimes carried her on my back—a thing I shouldn't like to attempt now, at my age. I think I detect in the bridegroom's eye the threat: "Just you dare!" These things establish a bond, and I recall those days with real pleasure.

Cecilia has been a very good daughter. It was only yesterday that her father told me what a help she had been to her mother in looking after her little brothers and sisters. From today she will have someone else to look after, and she will make as great a success of it, too.

I am not personally acquainted with the bridegroom, Mr. Stanley Shen; but all that I have heard about him is good. He comes from a big family—big in commerce, and big in size. His brothers, sisters and cousins alone number ninety-seven. I can only guarantee this figure to be correct up to 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon when it was given to me. In such a prolific family, there is no telling what it has become since.

EXCELLENT TASTE

Mr. Stanley Shen is the son of a well-known Tientsin merchant, and his grandfather, who is happily still hale and strong, was a prominent banker in his days. Unlike most sons of rich men, he was not content to sit back and lead the life of the man-about-town. He wanted to branch out for himself; he started a business of his own at Haiphong, and has

Legislative Council

ORDER OF BUSINESS FOR TODAY

A meeting of the Hongkong Legislative Council will be held today at 2.30 p.m. H.E. the Governor will preside.

The report of the members of the Standing Law Committee of the Council on the War Revenue Bill, 1940, will be presented to the Council by the Attorney General.

TWO MOTIONS

There are two motions on the order of business for the day:

The Attorney General will move: That the additional by-law made by the Urban Council under section 3 of the Public Health (Sanitation) Ordinance, 1935, on February 27, 1940, under the heading "Dangerous and Offensive Trades," be approved.

The Financial Secretary will move the Second and Third Readings of: "A Bill to amend the Telephone Ordinance, 1925, as amended by the Telephone Amendment Ordinance, 1930, and the Telephone Amendment Ordinance, 1933."

MILITARY BAND CONCERT AT THE PENINSULA

The management of the Peninsula Hotel announces that on Sunday, April 21, a Military Band Concert will take place in the lounge of that establishment from 9 to 11 p.m.

By kind permission of Major H.W.M. Stewart, O.B.E., M.C., and Officers, the Band of the 1st Battalion The Middlesex Regiment (D.C.O.) are providing the musical arrangements under the conductorship of Mr. W.E. Kifford, A.R.C.M., Bandmaster. Included in the evening's entertainment will be a few select outstanding local vocalists, and the entire programme should prove worthy of the purpose, namely in aid of The British War Organisation Fund.

To augment the funds for the occasion an advertisement supported programme is being compiled which will be on sale to the audience, and an admission charge of $1.00 per person will be made.

Many music lovers in this Colony would no doubt welcome a concert of this kind and it is hoped that so worthy a cause will receive the cordial support which it merits.

BOOKS DONATED TO LINGNAN U. LIBRARY

The Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, Division of Intercourse and Education, (whose Director is Mr. Nicolas Murray Butler), has donated a number of interesting books to the library of the International Relations Club (I.R.C.) at Lingnan University in Hongkong.

The gift of books was made possible through the Headquarters or the I.R.C. in New York, under the auspices of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace.

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek has issued an order commending the patriotism of the Chinese hawkers and merchants in Hongkong who raised and remitted recently $4,000 to the National Military Council as a comfort fund for the Chinese frontline troops in Kwangtung and Kwangsi.

already proven his ability as a man of commerce.

It is pleasant to think that he is maintaining the banking interests of his forefathers by marrying the daughter of a banker. In the choice of his wife he has displayed excellent taste and judgment. It was only a few months ago that he first met Cecilia; and at that time there was no lack of eligible suitors for her hand. But he saw, he fell in love at sight, he worked, he conquered. A man with such compelling and winning ways is bound to get on in life, and I therefore prophesy for Mr. and Mrs. Shen a successful and happy future.

Ladies and gentlemen, I now give you "Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Shen!"

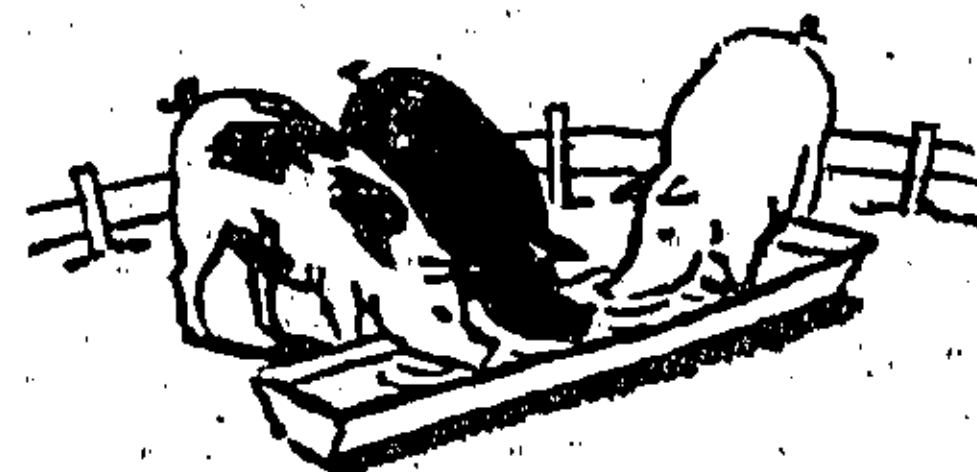

The bridegroom replied briefly thanking Sir Robert Kotewall for his references to his bride and himself and proposed the toast of the bridesmaids.

NO CONCILIATION AT EXPENSE OF CHINA

THE STORM OF CRITICISM which was levelled in the House of Commons on Wednesday at the recent speech made by Sir Robert Craigie, H.M.'s Ambassador in Tokyo, gives clear proof of how solidly British public opinion is against any conciliatory gesture being made by Britain to Japan at the expense of China. Both in the Commons and in the House of Lords, the Government sought to reassure questioners, by emphatically re-affirming that, as far as British policy in China is concerned, there would be no change from its position of recognising the Chungking Government as the legitimate government of China and that reports of any modification of this stand were utterly groundless. In, however, declaring that the British Government sees no objection to improving relations with Japan, Mr. R. A. Butler, in the House of Commons, and Lord Halifax, in the Lords, might have made it more definite that any action in such a direction would not be allowed to jeopardise the status and integrity of China and those principles of security and independence for which she has been so heroically resisting Japanese aggression for nearly three years.

PARTICULARLY exception appears to have been taken by questioners in the Commons to a statement in Sir Robert Craigie's speech that it should not be difficult for China and Japan to bring the aims of their national policies into full harmony. At the present moment, while Japan, with her monkey-up-the-pole diplomacy, has set up a renegade regime in Nanking, there can be no way of reconciling the national interests of China with those of a militarist nation, which, having failed to subdue Chinese solidarity and unity by aggression, has now adopted the contemptible method of seeking to hold their ill-gotten gains through puppets who are prepared to dance to their tunes for self-aggrandisement.

CRITICS of Sir Robert Craigie's words in Tokyo very properly resented any impression that might be caused abroad that Britain, with her Allies, while strongly opposing aggression in the West, is condoning similar methods of warfare in the Far East. This, too, was strenuously denied by the official spokesmen in both Houses of Parliament, but it is hard to see how amiable relations between Japan and Britain can be restored without causing annoyance and irritation amongst those powers who have firmly, and in no uncertain terms, voiced their disapproval of Japanese policy in China. In the United States, particularly, where exception to the British Envoy's words has been strongest, the natural conclusion was that, by this seeming justification of the Japanese Army's venture in China, Britain would be acting contrary to the principles of the Nine-Power Treaty and, instead of "keeping step" with the United States, cause an adverse effect on American policy in the Far East.

THE CHINESE GOVERNMENT, however, should have no cause for anxiety. The fact that the new puppet re-

"UNFORTUNATE STORM
IN A TEACUP"Dispute Over Jewellery:
Judgment For Plaintiff

"An unfortunate storm in a teacup" was the description applied by the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, to an action in the Supreme Court yesterday which resulted from a dispute over jewellery, at one time belonging to the former Austrian Consul at Manila, between a cabaret proprietor and a draper.

Plaintiff was Denis Victor, of the Lido Ballroom, who sued Karel Weiss, of Rolny's, for the return of a diamond ring, valued at $1,350. It was alleged that Weiss had obtained the ring on October 23, 1938, for sale on a commission basis.

Defendant brought a counter-claim against plaintiff for $2,850 on the ground that the sum was due to him as money lent to a Mr. Corvissano.

Corvissano was described in the course of the proceedings as formerly Consul-General for Austria at Manila, who lost his position after the Anschluss and whose financial position made it undesirable for him to stay in Hongkong.

NO SETTLEMENT
An adjournment was granted by the Chief Justice after evidence was taken when it appeared that there was an opportunity for the parties to arrive at a settlement. On resumption, it was stated that a settlement had not been arrived at.

After hearing the arguments, His Lordship ruled that the onus of proof in the counter-claim had not been discharged by the defendant, and gave judgment for the plaintiff with costs.

Regarding the claim for return of the ring, it was mentioned that the article had already been handed over and there was agreement between the parties.

The Hon. Mr. Leo D'Almada, Jnr., instructed by Mr. F. X. D'Almada, appeared for Denis Victor, while Karel Weiss was represented by Mr. H. C. Macnamara, instructed by Mr. D. McCallum.

ADVANCED MONEY
Weiss said that during 1938 he became acquainted with Corvissano, and advanced him various sums of money at different times.

He advanced $2,850 in all. In liquidation of his debt, Corvissano offered him some pawn tickets in connection with 18 pieces of jewellery which he had pawned and which, he said, were worth 20,000 pesos.

Cross-examined, Weiss said he asked Victor to redeem the articles because he could not spare the money.

In the witness-box, Victor denied that there was any agreement between Weiss and himself that, after he had been paid $3,148 from sale of the jewellery, Weiss was to be paid $2,850, before the surplus could be shared. Weiss never mentioned the matter at the time of redeeming the articles, said witness.

DIVIDE SURPLUS
Victor then stated that all he was concerned with was that he should get back the money he had paid out. When asked by his Lordship if he was prepared, after he was paid his $3,148 from sale of the jewellery, to let Weiss have his $2,850, then to divide the surplus, Victor signified his readiness.

Detective-Inspector, Darlin, who made the arrest is in charge of the investigations.

gime in Nanking will be unable to secure any recognition from the Powers that count should be sufficient to spell its failure, Japan's plan to clear all Western trading influence from the coasts and rivers of China, will come tumbling down like the proverbial pack of cards. With Britain, America and France still expressing their readiness to give China the assistance she requires in her gallant resistance, Wang's regime is faced with an unenviable position and the tool which the Japanese have been lured into using to liquidate the "China Incident," will begin to prove more useless than they imagined would be the case. In the circumstances, whatever advances made towards "improving" the relations between Britain and Japan, the Chinese can be perfectly certain that no damage to their interests and the ultimate wishes of the Chinese Government will be permitted by Britain, which has unfavourably championed their cause throughout nearly three years of bitter strife. No more need be said than to repeat the News Chronicle's comment that Sir Robert Craigie's speech should never have been made.

HOME PRESS UNANIMOUSLY SUPPORTS PREMIER

"Stern Methods And Harsher Measures"

LONDON, April 4 (Reuter).—The general line of the Home Press comment on Mr. Chamberlain's speech is that although the intensification of the blockade which he forecast may be of some damage to neutrals, in the long run they will benefit from any measures taken to shorten the war.

The Times says that we are dealing with a criminal nation and if in the heat of the battles some of the blows fall on neutral countries they must bear their injuries as patiently as they can.

It is their battle as much as ours and it is not unreasonable for us to ask neutrals to apply a benevolent, if not strict interpretation of the laws of neutrality.

REFRISALS JUSTIFIED

The Manchester Guardian says that Germany's attack on neutrals justifies reprisals under International Law. It means hardship for the neutral states if the blockade is intensified, but the thing that the neutrals feel most and mention least is the feeling that if they fulfil the British demands it will involve them with Germany.

The Daily Telegraph says, that neutrals may benefit from trade with the Allies but the resources of the British and French Empires can only be permitted to them if they limit their trade with Germany.

Economic strategy of this nature brings no peril to any neutral state. All know that their only hope of survival as nations lies in the overthrow of the Nazi Reich.

No Reflection Cast On The Ministers

LONDON, April 4 (Reuter).—An official statement issued from the Prime Minister's residence states that the fact that certain Ministers are accepting less important offices is no reflection on the way they had conducted the business of their Departments.

This is due to the over-riding necessity of making the best use of every Minister's services.

Mr. Chamberlain stated that his object is to secure a full co-ordination of the work of the Departments which have related functions and to keep the War Cabinet informed of all questions of major importance.

Lord Chatfield will not be replaced as Minister for the Co-ordination of Defence. The Minister of Supply will be added to Mr. Chamberlain's Defence Committee.

Responsibilities Relieved. In his letter of resignation Lord Chatfield stated that although a Minister for the Co-ordination of Defence is necessary in time of peace, his responsibilities are greatly lessened by the establishment of a War Cabinet, especially as his power of co-ordination and make decisions must pass automatically into the Prime Minister's hands. He therefore, placed his office entirely at the disposal of the Premier.

Mr. Chamberlain replied that when he appointed Lord Chatfield he felt that in the conditions he then expected to prevail Lord Chatfield's long sea experience would be invaluable. In point of fact, however, conditions have proved very different from anti-cipations.

Premier's Gratitude. Nevertheless the Premier expresses gratitude for Lord Chatfield's counsel and his wise and skilful handling of all matters, both of which had been of the utmost assistance.

Continuing, Mr. Chamberlain stated: "I am not contemplating changes which I believe will prove valuable in prosecuting the war, but which will reduce some of the functions with which you have been particularly associated."

The Premier expressed the hope that it may be possible to find other means of "making your great abilities available for the benefit of the country in winning the war."

WAR CABINET REDUCED. LONDON, April 4 (Reuter).—By the Cabinet changes the War Cabinet is reduced from nine to eight members. The purpose of the changes is to make alterations in the relations between members of the War Cabinet and Ministers not in the Cabinet, but who are in charge of Departments and thus secure a full co-ordination of the important departments.

Such co-operation is particularly apparent in Mr. Winston Churchill's committee, which is, in effect, the strategy and operations committee of the War Cabinet. The Postmaster General and First Commissioner of Works will have the rank which, in peace time, would be equivalent to Cabinet rank.

AND SO THE CHILDREN BELIEVED IT ALL

For It Was Herr Goering Who Told The Story!

LONDON, April 4 (Reuter).—Field-Marshal Hermann Goering, who is also the Nazi Air Minister, predicted that a succession of German blows in the West was all that was needed for Germany to win the war.

He said this in a broadcast to the Hitler Air Youth so he could hardly have said anything else!

Germany's flanks and rear were secure and she would win the war and "regain" her position as the "most powerful Empire in the world."

GERMANY, THE DICTATOR! The Nazi leader said that Germany's enemies were trying to prevent the reconstruction of Germany and started the war in an effort to destroy the Third Reich. "They will learn what it means to attack the German people," he said.

He went on to say that they will be given the same treatment as the Poles got, for Germany had now decided to win the war!

Peanuts Add Variety To The Menu

The housewife can use peanuts in cookies or as an inexpensive salad garnish.

Bananas rolled in mayonnaise and in chopped peanuts, and served on lettuce with a peanut butter dressing make an attractive dessert salad.

Peanuts are used mainly in cooking in the form of peanut butter.

A delectable frosting can be made by blending peanut butter and a tablespoon or two of cream into a confectioners' sugar and butter frosting.

Spread this on your favorite chocolate cake, and see if

FINNISH STYLES IN BRIGHT COLOURS

FASHIONS FOLLOW THE WAR today with a dip into Finland for inspiration.

The vivid stockings and strapped slippers of Finnish peasantry stepped out with sports frocks of coarse linens and beach dresses of cotton prints.

There are fiancées' bonnets, brides' fichus—ornamental, three-cornered capes—and young girls' belts brightly coloured and richly embroidered.

Tailored Suits:

Black tailored suits in Schiaparelli's collection are topped with filled Finnish bonnets, or scarfed with lace-trimmed organdy fichus tied in big bows under the chin. With coarse mesh stockings in red, blue, or white are worn heeled "children's" shoes in black patent leather.

Belts, elaborately embroidered in Scandinavian designs, wind twice around the waists of day and evening dresses. Some were fastened with tasseled cords.

Note These:

DECOLLETES on evening gowns could be camouflaged with long-sleeved gumpes, or self or contrasting material bead-trimmed or spangled. Longer day skirts, measuring about 15 inches to the ground. A prevalence of slim day and evening silhouettes, higher waistlines hinting at empire styles in some coats... others divided between shoulder-hum styles and waist-fitted models.

LEGACIES TO OXFORD

Miss Emily Georgiana Kemp, F.R.S., of Harley House, Regent's Park, who died on December 25, aged 79, left estate of the value of £28,245, with net personality £26,123.

She left her paintings, scrolls, jades, brasses, books, embroideries, and other articles illustrating China and other Asiatic countries to the University of Oxford, for deposit at the Indian Institute of the Ashmolean Museum, and about £10,000 for the housing thereof.

LEMON—AID TO BEAUTY

Bonita Granville illustrates that the lemon solves the purpose in many ways as a beauty aid. In the case of the sub-debs, where cosmetics and creams are not necessary, the lemon provides an excellent substitute. The young actress demonstrates these various uses.

A—Lemon juice diluted in water and applied to the skin with absorbent cotton makes an excellent astringent.

B—Lemons, cut in quarters and applied to the nails and finger-tips will remove stains in almost every instance.

Round The Shops

BRIGHT, SUNNY WEATHER of the last few days, with every prospect of setting in for a long spell, invites us outdoors—for sports, rambles, cycling jaunts and all the enjoyment of an outdoor life.

Womenfolk are scurrying around replenishing their summer wardrobes for the hot weather—clothes that will give the maximum of comfort and coolness combined with the necessary smartness and fashionable demands of the day. Hongkong's millinery establishments have readily prepared their displays for the coming season—frocks for every occasion and sports attire that is designed to meet the most fastidious tastes.

Robene Outfits:

The biggest clamour is for correct wear for tennis. Lane, Crawford's are showing the latest outfits for this popular sport. Designed by "Josephine C." in quite the smartest styles, they have a wide range from which buyers can make their selection. The silk twill models, comprising shirts and shorts, combined with overskirt, and priced at $32.50 are real bargains fashioned as they are to allow complete freedom of movement without detracting from chic and charm. Similarly designed Robene outfits, cut on the latest lines from home, are only slightly higher in price, but even at $45.50 they provide something in feminine wear that could hardly be repeated in Hongkong.

Washable Cottons:

RIVELLE, in the Arcade, really has the most marvellous selection of washable cotton frocks for the warm weather. The designs, which she picked out with meticulous care in order to avoid exaggeration in colour and brightness, are as a result fascinatingly pleasing in appearance, cut and finish and, what is most important, she is selling them at from $12 upwards—making this dainty wear available to everybody. Straw hats to suit all occasions, just as the weather demands and to match the simplest of frocks, are also on display. Rivelle has by no means neglected evening wear and her selection of evening gowns for the summer are so delightfully charming and attractive that her patrons will really find them irresistible.

Mayo's Have It:

Nobody on a shopping expedition has ever had cause to say that Mayo's, in the Arcade, were not able to provide them with what they need. They always have quite the latest and smartest in every line of feminine requirements and their display for this week includes a wonderful selection of summer millinery—fashionably designed afternoon frocks and a grand show of evening gowns which combine all the qualities of charm and seductiveness.

SPRING AND SUMMER HATS TAKE SHAPE WITH RIBBONS & FLOWERS

SPRING AND SUMMER hats begin to make headway, and small shapes bring bright touches in ribbon and floral trimmings.

Striped in black and white posed next red and white is used on one of the new black silk straw pork-pie styles, somewhat similar to the puffed-out black felt of the autumn worn forward on the brow.

THE RIBBON is skilfully handled in a flat swathed-back movement, carried down from open top, where ends of the ribbon point up into two little ears near the front.

GREEN LEAVES

A very small pill-box is covered entirely with green leaves and heightened at one side by a couple of full-blown variegated pink and white camellias, while buds perch out at intervals midst the foliage.

Glistening green foliage rises above a tiny wreath of white gardenias trimming a miniature

Alpine crown, tied round the base by red gros-grain. It is an elegant black silk straw shape with flat, short sailor brim, strengthened round edge by inch-wide turned-back straw border.

"BLEU DE FINLANDE"

An elongated melon-sectioned head fitting makes the background for a becoming toque with big coal-scuttle rosette perched forward on the brow. This particular gros-grain model in "bleu de Finlande," resembling Wedgewood blue, shows the big open rosette faced inside by black gros-grain.

Line movements for little hats are featured in both off-pastel felts and Panama. They are from Louise Bourbon, who perches them forward from cache-peignes instead of elastic grips. They are well fitted and of tailored aspect, have stenciled cut openings or scalloped borders finishing them off.

BEAUTY HINTS FROM MOVIE MAKE-UP EXPERTS

ARTIFICIAL EYEBROWS for women whose natural brows are not luxuriant enough to be attractive, are being manufactured by Hollywood make-up experts and are becoming popular among stars for off-screen wear, writes Lon Jones from Hollywood.

SEVERAL of the screen's most glamorous personalities have been wearing these false eyebrows ever since the thin, highly-plucked style was abandoned several months ago in favour of a more luxuriant growth.

ARTIFICIAL LASHES

Artificial eyelashes are coming into widespread usage among the stars for off-screen wear and, of course, the trend is spreading among other women.

Max Factor, junr., declares that Hedy Lamarr's beautiful natural eyelashes are completely responsible for the popular favoring of false eyelashes. Here is his formula for a near-duplication of Miss Lamarr's beautiful eyes: Draw a fine line with an eyebrow pencil directly below the lashes of the lower lid, to magnify the eyes' appearance of size. Shadow the upper lid with eyeshadow. Finally, if the natural lashes are not long enough and naturally luxuriant to duplicate those of Hedy's, apply false eyelashes.

Gale Page, also noted for her beautiful eyes and lashes, reveals this trick she uses to make her upper lashes look even thicker than they are. She powders them ever so lightly before applying mascara. She puts mascara on both sides of the upper lashes and makes them appear very long by curling them upward. Miss Page finds that constant use of an eyelash curler also stimulates the growth of the lashes.

TWO SHADES

She believes that every girl should use two shades of eye shadow. Brown should always shadow the section just below the brow, while the color that goes on the lid depends upon the color of the eye. Miss Page, who has deep brown eyes, blends brown and green shadow over the lid, applying it heaviest next to the lash and fading it off into the brown. Sometimes she puts a line of the shadow at the outside corner of her eyes to elongate them.

"PANCAKE" STYLE

The day of heavy make-up has gone, say the experts. They have evolved a new "pan-cake" make-up which appears natural almost to the point of invisibility. It was evolved for use in technicolor films and although light, transparent and porous, it has the power to conceal minor skin blemishes. This is now being marketed for general use.

Lip gloss is another make-up material created for picture needs which is coming into widespread general use here. The gloss, first compounded to provide a moist sheen for the lips of stars in pictures, is being favored now by stars for off-screen use.

C—A cold glass of fresh lemonade is delicious as well as health-giving.

D—Applying lemon to the elbow bleaches the skin and helps keep it smooth.

QUIETLY STEADY MARKET

LONDON, Apr. 3. (Reuter)—The Stock Exchange today was quietly steady. Chinese loans advanced on unconfirmed rumours of the possibility of development in the Customs Loan position.

Gold mining shares spurred shortly before the close of trading, while the movements of other groups were mainly small. Wall Street was steady.

U.S. Farmers Told No War Boom Is On Horizon

DES MOINES, Iowa.—The American farmer was warned repeatedly and in very certain terms, that he must not look to the war in Europe to solve his price, and surplus problem. Unless this country itself becomes involved in the conflict, speaker after speaker at the fourth annual National Farm Institute almost literally shouted, there will be no war boom, no expansion of exports of American farm products.

It was not an entirely new theme but it was scored so deeply and consistently by experts and leaders in so many, and such varied fields as to give it new and commanding authority, and the message "got across" directly to other than businessmen and farm leaders, for fully half of the thousand or so men and women in attendance at the Institute were identifiable as "dirt farmers."

They listened intently, with understanding and appreciation, and took an active part in the round-table discussions.

Dr. John D. Black, Professor of Economics at Harvard University, pointed out the essential differences between the situation today and that preceding and during the first year of the other war.

Before, he said, Europe was not prepared, whereas this time it stocked up on many necessary materials, including foodstuffs. Before, he held, Europe depended on this country for much of its farm produce, but now the allied empires have become largely self-sufficient.

In any event, he said, Britain and France will buy exclusively, and understandably, from their own empires as far as they can. America's lost markets, he noted, lost because of high tariffs, now have found other, or developed their own, sources of supply.

As for the danger of inflation such as marked the period of the last World War, Dr. Black said that, while he doesn't think there will be any great expansion of war demands, he feels that if there is, the Nation may need more legislative controls than are now available to stem a destructive movement. He implied that, in his opinion, the danger of inflation would be greater under a Republican than a Democratic Administration.

NO MEAT BOOM

Gerald Thorne, Director of Research of Wilson & Co., Chicago packers, said that only a very long war would bring any added demand for pork products, the commodity in which Iowans are most interested.

R. M. Evans, administrator of the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, reiterated Dr. Black's contention that British and French purchases in this country will be mainly war materials, not farm products.

Emil Loriks, Director of the National Farmers' Unions, found satisfaction in the fact as he said, that the American will not have the opportunity to exploit his soil to take advantage of the war.

Ralph Smith, Master of the Iowa State Grange, agrees that it might be difficult to resist a war inflation should all the makings of one present themselves, agreed with the others that there is little likelihood of such a condition developing, or that meanwhile the farmer can hope for any new outlets for his goods abroad.—(Christian Science Monitor).

GREAT DROP IN COAL OUTPUT

The world output of coal in 1938 decreased by 100,000,000 tons, according to the 18th annual report of the Secretary for Mines, issued as a Blue Book recently. Other points from the report were:

EXPORTS DECREASED

The British output at 227,000,000 tons was nearly 14,000,000 less than in 1937.

World coal exports decreased by 19,000,000 tons.

The production, mainly from coal of 105,000,000 gallons of refined motor spirit was an increase of 5,000,000 gallons in 1937.

More than nine-tenths of the world drop in output took place in the U. S. A. coalfields, where production declined by over 95,000,000 tons.

OUTPUT INCREASE

Soviet Russia's output increased by over 10,000,000 tons.

Coal used for all purposes at home amounted to over 175,000,000 tons, nearly 7,000,000 tons less than the year before. The iron and steel industry was mainly responsible for this decline as the result of a reduced scale of working in the industry.

The Chief Inspector of Mines in his report stated that the death toll at mines during the year was 858, with 3,157 seriously injured. On the average 178,872 workers were employed at the surface and 623,571 underground.

Although progress continued in the use of protected equipment, the inspector stated that many men had not availed themselves of that protection.

The attitude of many of them was that they appeared to be prepared to take the risk.

64,000-TON SHIP SOLD FOR SCRAP

FORMER GERMAN LINER

LONDON, Mar. 20. (By Air Mail)—H.M.S. Caledonia of 64,000 tons displacement, formerly the Cunard-White Star liner Majestic and, originally the Hamburg-Amerika liner Bismarck, for many years the biggest ship in the world, has been sold for scrap.

In 1919 she was handed over to this country under the Reparations clause of the Peace Treaty, and was operated for many years on the Southampton-New York service. She was to have been broken up when disposed of by Cunard-White Star Ltd. in 1936, but the Admiralty purchased her for use as a training ship for boys and artificer apprentices. The cost of fitting her out for this purpose was nearly £500,000.

NEW YORK COTTON: Prices firmed in sympathy with stocks. Trading house were absorbing contracts, with renewed Trade interests in near delivery. Washington reports indicate that an export subsidy programme was under serious consideration and would possibly be mandatory within this week. Textiles were firm and active.

NEW YORK RUBBER: Freer foreign offerings on advances was noticeable.

CHICAGO WHEAT: Early easiness, due to lower foreign cables and scattered hedge-selling, met with good class buying. Private estimates place the Winter wheat crop at 435,000,000 to 450,000,000 bushels. This figure was slightly better than expected.

NEW YORK STOCKS: Previous close, 147.92; Today's close, 149.65; Change, up 1.73.

Training The Young

ON ANGLO-FRENCH SOLIDARITY

PARIS, April 4 (Reuter).—Further evidence of Anglo-French solidarity was given yesterday when Earl de la Warr, President of the British Board of Education, in a broadcast from Paris to the young people of France and England spoke on the contribution the schools of the two countries could make towards Anglo-French unity.

He pointed out that there was a sphere more important than schools were the young of France and the young of England are today picking up their ideas, and laying the foundations of their future lives.

CHALLENGE TO FREEDOM

The challenge to freedom would be answered in the immediate future by Franco-British arms, but in the long view it has a direct challenge to the schools and the quality of human beings they are turning out.

A full international understanding must begin with a united front of the western democracies and to this English schools have already engaged special methods of instructing their pupils on the ideals, culture and achievements of France. New plans have been made and programmes drawn up for school broadcast, films and lectures. Exchange visits of teachers and children will also be arranged.

The provisional regulations governing the imposition of Inheritance Tax adopted by the Legislature Yuan will become effective beginning from July 1 this year, according to a Chinese National Government mandate issued on Wednesday.

FIRE INSURANCE CO., MEETING

and much as we regret having to advocate it, we feel shareholders will agree that in view of the heavy shrinkage of over $80,000—or $2 per share—in income interest, this course is only wise. Here again this shrinkage is due almost entirely to Shanghai Exchange which fell from 180 at the end of 1938 to 310 on December 31, last and now stands at 350.

AN EASTERN COMPANY

It will be borne in mind that we are essentially an Eastern Company, incorporated in Hongkong, and that, certainly over the first forty years of our existence, the bulk of our income was derived from Shanghai and China generally.

This being so, it is only natural that we should have considerable investments in Shanghai in the shape of Debentures and first-class Mortgages; I think I can say without exaggeration that there is no record of our ever having made a loss over them in terms of Shanghai dollars, either in respect of principal or interest.

This is still true today but, in terms of Hongkong dollars, the Shanghai currency is by no means what it was.

Turning to the Balance Sheet, I have called your attention to the transfer of a further $500,000 that we have been obliged to make from Reinsurance Fund to Investment and Exchange Fluctuation Account in order to put the latter Reserve in funds to absorb the depreciation on Shanghai investments.

REPORT ADOPTED

In conclusion Mr. Paterson proposed that the Report and Accounts, as presented, including the payment of a Dividend of $11 per share, an addition of $100,000 to Reinsurance Fund, the transfer of $129,429.78 to the credit of Investment and Exchange Fluctuation Account, and the payment of a bonus to the Staff of 15 per cent upon their salaries, be adopted. The motion was duly passed.

Messrs. C. Bernard Brown, A. H. Compton, T. E. Pearce, J. H. Taggart, S. T. Williamson and the Hon. Mr. M. K. Lo re-elected to the Consultative Committee and Messrs. Lowe Bingham and Matthews and Messrs. Percy Smith Seth and Fleming were re-elected appoint auditors.

NARROW WIN FOR ROYAL SCOTS IN INTER-UNIT BOXING CHAMPIONSHIP

THE FINALS OF THE HONGKONG AREA INTER-UNIT BOXING CHAMPIONSHIP TOOK PLACE AT THE NANKING BARRACKS, SHAMSHUIPO, LAST NIGHT when several good fights were witnessed. A large crowd attended to see the 2nd Bn., The Royal Scots team defeat the 1st Bn., The Middlesex Regt. by the narrow margin of one point.

On The Chinese War Fronts

PINYANG, April 4 (Central)—About 300 Japanese officers and men were wiped out on April 1 northwest of Siping on the Nanning-Yamchow highway in a Chinese encircling attack. The Chinese are continuing their attack at Siping.

SZEWU, April 4 (Central)—In a determined attack on April 1, Chinese troops succeeded in breaking through the Japanese lines at Samshui and Salnam, on the West River, inflicting many Japanese casualties. About half of the Japanese troops at Fung-chung are said to have been annihilated and the rest ready to retreat.

WUYUAN, SUIYUAN, April 4 (Central)—Further serious losses were sustained by the Japanese in their unsuccessful counter-attack on Wuyuan, west Suiyuan, last week. Over 10,000 Japanese, representing the main enemy force in the province, were crushingly defeated. Wuyuan was recaptured and Japanese units breaking into the town were wiped out. Important points near Wuyuan have all returned to Chinese control.

LOYANG, April 4 (Central)—After a long lull, fighting has again flared up in southeast Shansi as Japanese units launched an attack on Fengsichuan and Changyutsun, north of Changke, with the support of artillery and planes. Another Japanese force in the meantime has started a push westward from Changke.

In south Shansi, the Chinese are continuing their enveloping attack on the Japanese near Linfen, on the Tientsin Railway.

A Chinese force attacking Chishan, in southwest Shansi, pounded severely at the city gate a few days ago.

CARRY ON THE STRUGGLE

CHUNGKING, April 4 (Central)—The People's Political Council yesterday issued circular telegrams to the Chinese frontline troops and civilians in the war areas encouraging them to continue the struggle against the invaders. At the Council meeting yesterday the following proposals examination committees were formed: military affairs, foreign relations, interior affairs, finance and economy, and education and culture.

WAR RELIEF

War refugees and air raid victims could be given only 10 cents a day for food, while war orphans were being supported on $7 a month. A more pitiable plight, Mr. Miao said, and one that should immediately attract the attention of Chinese in Hongkong, was that of the College students who are cut off from their parents in the occupied areas.

They were receiving $12 a month from the National Government and it was usually possible for some to earn anything up to $15 extra in various ways. This total sum of $27 was not sufficient even for food as it cost a ricksha coolie up to $35 a month for his meals!

Some of the poorer students, and the girls were, the worse sufferers, can be seen in the evenings waiting for their food at the backdoors of restaurants, and the tea-houses for ricksha coolies were being frequented as much by the students.

GIFTS RECEIVED

Mr. Miao concluded by saying that much help had already been received and much of it from the Rotary Club, but a good deal of help was yet to be looked forward to before conditions can be improved. He was happy to announce, Mr. Miao said, a gift of $5000 from the British Relief Fund and a further gift of $2,000 worth of medicines from the China Medical Relief Fund through Dr. Arthur Woo.

The first fight saw Pte. Bailey (Royal Scots) knock-out Pte. Hope (Middlesex) in the third round after flooring his opponent twice in the first round. There was another knock-out in the 11th fight on the card, when L/Cpl. Moore (R.S.) floored Pte. Roberts (M'sex) for the count in the first round.

The best fight on the programme was in the seventh bout between Pte. McGready (Royal Scots) and Pte. Gelst (M'sex Regt.) with hard hitting on both sides. McGready won on points, and Pte. Gelst (M'sex Regt.) proved a very game fighter.

At the close of the programme H.E. Major-General A. E. Grasett, in his speech, complimented Sgt. Elliot (Royal Scots) for his splendid performance in the last fight of the night, and thanked all presents for their attendance, and finally said that he was sorry Hitler, Goebbels, and Ribbentrop were not present to see something left of the British Army after all.

THE RESULTS

The following were the results: Bantam-Weight: Pte. Bailey beat Pte. Hope on a knock-out in the third round.

Feather-Weight: Pte. Corrigan (R.S.) beat Pte. Noble (M'sex) on points, Pte. Cavanagh (R.S.) beat Cpl. Brown (R.S.) on points.

INDIA'S PART IN THE WAR AGAINST NAZIISM

LONDON, Apr. 4 (BWS)—Opening his speech with a brief sketch of the varied resources of India and explaining the systems of Government, Lord Zetland broadcast last evening on the part India is playing in the Empire war effort.

Remarking that Indian forces had been sent to Malaya and Egypt, as well as providing troops for Aden, the Secretary for India said it had been impossible so far to satisfy the aspiration of a great number of those wishing to put their personal services at the King Emperor's disposal.

The Indian Princes, he continued, had been specially forward in making material contributions and he instanced the Nizam of Hyderabad's gift of £100,000 out of which a squadron bearing his name had been provided, as typical of these rulers' attitude.

NAVY'S HIGH PRESTIGE

After speaking of the Indian Navy, which he felt sure would enhance its present high prestige, Lord Zetland said the Indian Air Force had reached a high standard of efficiency and it was apparent the air was an element particularly congenial to young Indians.

Turning to the economic side, he said new industries were being started and the utmost use would be made of such substances as asbestos, bauxite, and chromite, and he added: "The resources of the Indian subcontinent seem indeed to be well nigh inexhaustible and they are being most industriously developed."

POLITICAL UNITY

Devoting the remainder of the speech to political relations between Britain and India, Lord Zetland said: "The goal we have set before ourselves is to aid the people of India to acquire a measure of political unity which will enable her to take her place as a great self-governing Dominion in the British Commonwealth of Nations," and he reviewed the objects of the Government of India Act of 1939, whereby provincial governments were transferred to Indian Ministers and responsible Indian Parliaments and provided for bringing both the provinces of British India and the States of ruling places into a great Indian Federation.

MOSLEMS AND HINDUS

Difficulties, had arisen, he said, and he explained the co-operation of these main political forces, the Indian National Congress, the Princes and the All-India Muslim League, essential to the establishment of federation. All three, however, had raised ob-

OPEN SINGLES BADMINTON AU AND WONG IN FINAL

C. AU, a finalist in the Men's Singles title in the Colony Badminton Championship last year when he lost to P. K. Hui, entered the final a second time last night when he defeated Henry Burdley, Shanghai champion last year, 15-10, 15-11 after a hard fight at the Club de Recreio.

In the first game Au led 10-2 and 12-3, while in the second, Burdley led Au 9-2 and 10-7.

Yong put up a splendid fight in the first set when he several times out-tricked his opponent at the net and led 9-6 at one stage. He appeared very much fatigued at the commencement of the second game which he lost after barely 10 minutes of play.
